

BJP's North east face, its new CM in Assam, at Express Adda today

Himanta Biswa Sarma
Express

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
Guwahati, June 1

NEWLY SWORN IN as Assam chief minister, Himanta Biswa

Sarma is the BJP's most influential leader in the North-East and the man credited with helping the party establish itself in a region where it had no presence till not so long ago. Holding important portfolio lios in the last state government, including finance, health and education, Sarma's claim to the top post in the state was accepted by the BJP ahead of incumbent CM Sarbananda Sonowal, after a large majority of the BJP MLAs sided with him. On Wednesday evening, Sarma will be guest at the Indian Express e-Adda. The session will be moderated by Executive Director, Indian Express Group, Anant Goenka and National Opinion Editor, Indian Express, Vandita Mishra. As Health Minister, Sarma, 52, handled the first Covid surge and has announced that battling the coronavirus will be his government's top priority. He has also kept the crucial Home portfolio with him, and had an early success when the ULFA released an abducted ONGC employee soon after Sarma made an appeal to its chief Parua Baruah. The CM has also invited the Barua faction of ULFA for peace talks.

Courtesy his previous stint, Sarma's name is also identified with some of the biggest development schemes under the BJP government. Known to speak his mind, the CM has said the BJP government remains firm on its demand that the published and controversial National Register of Citizens (NRC) be re-verified. The BJP's successful delicate balancing act between the NRC and its other contentious plan, of Citizenship (Amendment) Act, is also credited to Sarma.

contentious plan, of Citizenship (Amendment) Act, is also credited to Sarma.
