Management is responsible for the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the Accounting Standards referred to in sub-section (3C) of section 211 of the Companies Act, 1956 ("the Act"). This responsibility includes the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the financial statements give the information required by the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India:

- a) in the case of the Balance Sheet, of the state of affairs of the Company as at March 31, 2013

ANNEXURE REFERRED TO IN OUR REPORT OF EVEN DATE ON THE ACCCOUNTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED March 31, 2013 OF NHC FOODS LIMITED

On the basis of the information and explanations furnished to us and books and records examined by us in the normal course of audit and to the best of our knowledge and belief, we report that:

- i. a) The Company has maintained proper records showing full particulars, including quantitative details and situation of fixed assets.
 - b) Fixed by assets have not been physically verified the management during the year, hence, we are unable to comment on the discrepancies, if any.
 - c) In our opinion, a substantial part of fixed assets has not been disposed off during the year.
 - a) The management has conducted physical verification of inventory at regular intervals during the year.

ii.

- b) In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the procedures of physical verification of inventory followed by the Management are reasonable and adequate in relation to the size of the Company and its nature of business.
- c) In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the Company is maintaining proper records of inventory. The discrepancies noticed on verification between physical stocks and the book records were not material having regard to the size of the operations of the company.
- iii. a) The Company has not granted any loan, secured or unsecured to companies, firms or other parties covered in the register maintained under section 301 of the Act. Therefore, the provisions of clauses 4(iii)(b) to (d) of paragraph 4 of the Order are not applicable to the Company.
 - b) The Company had taken loans from three parties covered in the register maintained under section 301 of the Act. The maximum amount outstanding during the year was Rs. 3,94,94,444 and the year-end balance was Rs. 3,72,55,599.
 - c) In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the rate of interest and other terms and condition for such loans are not prima facie prejudicial to the interest of the Company.
 - d) In respect of loans taken, repayment of the principal amount is as stipulated and payment of interest has been regular.
- iv. In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, there is an adequate internal control system commensurate with the size of the Company and the nature of its business, for the purchase of fixed assets and inventories and for sale of goods and services. During the course of our audit, no major weakness has been noticed in the internal control system in respect of these areas.

- v. In respect of particulars of contracts or arrangements and transactions entered in the register maintained in pursuance of section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956,
 - a. To the best of our knowledge and belief and according to the information and explanations given to us, particulars of contracts or arrangements that needed to be entered into the register have been so entered.
 - b. None of the transactions made in pursuance of such contracts or arrangements exceed the value of Rupees Five lacs in respect of any one such party in the financial year.
- vi. The Company has not accepted any deposits from the public within the meaning of sections 58A and 58AA of the Act and the Companies (Acceptance of Deposits) Rules, 1975. Therefore, the provisions of clause (vi) of Paragraph 4 of the Order are not applicable to the Company.
- vii. In our opinion, the internal audit functions carried out during the year by firm of Chartered Accountants appointed by the management have been commensurate with the size of the Company and the nature of its business.
- viii. To the best of our knowledge and as explained, the Central Government has not prescribed maintenance of cost records under clause (d) of sub-section (1) of Section 209 of the Act, in respect of Company's products. Therefore the provision of clause (viii) of Paragraph 4 of the Order are not applicable to the Company.
- ix.
